Adventure & Thrill

For the bold, the curious, and the free-spirited.

Zanzibar is not only a paradise of peace — it's an island of pure adventure.

From skydiving over endless turquoise waters to racing across palm-lined trails, these experiences are crafted for those who live for the rush, the view, and the story that follows.

Each activity invites you to break routine and feel alive again — surrounded by nature, ocean breeze, and the rhythm of island freedom. Whether it's your first jump from the sky or your first ride through Zanzibar's wild landscapes, every moment will leave you exhilarated and inspired.

Skydiving Adventure

Location: Kendwa – North Zanzibar

Duration: Approx. 2 hours (including preparation and flight)

For those who dream of flying — this is where the sky meets the sea.

Take off from Kendwa Beach and ascend above the island's glowing lagoons, endless coral reefs, and white sandy shores before taking the leap of a lifetime.

Your tandem instructor will guide you through every moment, from the airplane climb to the freefall — a thrilling 35–45 seconds that turns into pure freedom as you glide beneath your parachute over paradise.

As you float gently back to the ground, the view is breathtaking — the Indian Ocean shining below and Zanzibar's coastline stretching endlessly around you. It's not just an adventure; it's a memory that will stay with you forever.

Includes:

- Tandem skydive with certified instructor
- Full safety briefing and professional gear
- Photos and HD video package
- Hotel pick-up and return transfers

Good to Know:

Whale Shark Encounter

Location: Mafia Island – South of Zanzibar

Duration: Full day (including flight and transfers)

Experience one of the most extraordinary moments in the Indian Ocean — swimming alongside the gentle giants of the sea.

Your journey begins early in the morning with a scenic flight from Zanzibar to Mafia Island, a protected marine sanctuary known for its pristine waters and peaceful atmosphere. Upon arrival, a professional marine guide will take you by boat to the whale shark area, where these magnificent creatures can be seen gliding gracefully near the surface.

Slip into the water and find yourself face-to-face with the largest fish in the world — calm, curious, and completely harmless.

The experience is pure awe: clear blue water, sunlight dancing across their spotted skin, and the silent rhythm of the ocean surrounding you. After your swim, relax on the boat with tropical fruits and refreshments before returning to the island for your flight back to Zanzibar.

Whale Shark Encounter

Masingini Forest Hike

Location: Masingini Forest – Near Stone Town

Duration: Half day (approx. 4–5 hours including transfers)

Step away from the beaches and into Zanzibar’s green heart. The Masingini Forest is a lush sanctuary just outside Stone Town, offering a peaceful retreat filled with ancient trees, birdsong, and cool island air. Guided by local nature experts, you’ll walk through shaded forest trails, learning about native plants, tropical butterflies, and the rare Zanzibar red colobus monkeys that call this forest home.

Midway through your journey, the calm turns into exhilaration — at the Zanzibar Zipline Adventure Park, hidden within the forest canopy. Here, you’ll soar between giant trees on a series of ziplines, bridges, and platforms, experiencing the forest from an entirely new perspective. It’s the perfect mix of serenity and thrill — nature’s beauty and your heartbeat in harmony.

Culture & Local Life

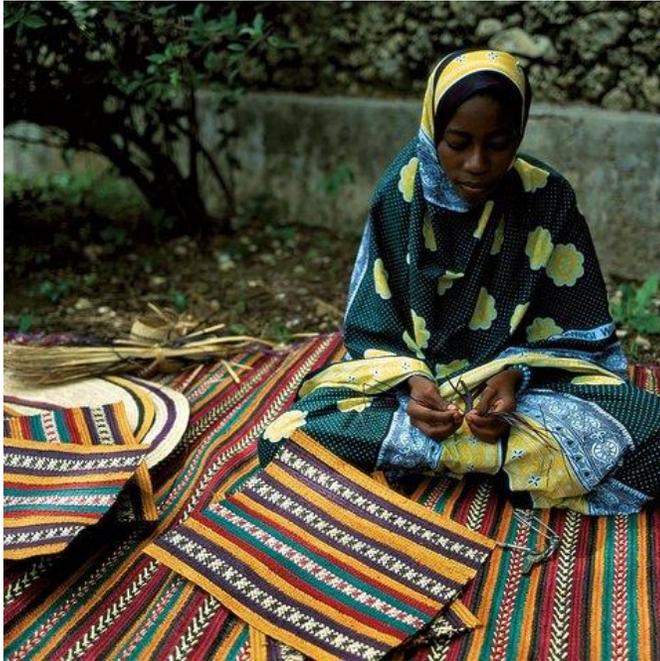

Discover the heart of Zanzibar — its people, its traditions, and its rhythm.

Beyond the turquoise water and white sands lies an island rich in stories. These experiences invite you to see Zanzibar through the eyes of its locals: the artisans shaping glass and spices by hand, the fishermen building dhows on the shore, and the villagers living with the same warmth and simplicity that make this island so unique.

From vibrant spice farms to peaceful village walks, every moment connects you to the island's heritage, its creativity, and its soul.

Made in Zanzibar Tour

Price:

- Private (330 $ / 2pax)

Location: Multiple Locations (Chako, 1001 Organics, Zalt)

Duration: Half day (approx. 3–4 hours including transfers)

Celebrate the creativity, craftsmanship, and community spirit that define the real Zanzibar.

The Made in Zanzibar Tour takes you behind the scenes of three inspiring local enterprises — each turning tradition into art and sustainability into a way of life.

Your journey begins at Chako, where discarded glass bottles from island resorts are transformed into beautiful handmade décor and homeware. Watch local artisans cut, polish, and design each piece with care — and even try creating your own small souvenir.

Next, visit 1001 Organics, a spice production workshop where Zanzibari-grown cloves, cinnamon, and cardamom are turned into aromatic blends.

Here you'll learn how to craft your own Chai Masala, a spiced tea that captures the essence of the island.

Finally, explore Zalt, Zanzibar's artisanal sea salt refinery. From harvesting on the shores of Pemba to mixing with island herbs and spices, each grain tells a story of purity and passion.

Includes:

- Guided tour of all three locations
- Hands-on participation in each workshop
- Bottled water and light refreshments
- Round-trip transfers from Safaya Villas

Good to Know:

- Morning departure recommended
- Comfortable clothing suggested
- Opportunities for shopping at local wholesale prices
- Supports sustainable, community-led businesses

Tumbatu Island Experience

Location: Tumbatu Island (accessible from Nungwi)

Duration: Full day (approx. 6–7 hours including transfers)

Step into one of Zanzibar’s most secluded communities — a world untouched by modern life.

Accessible only with special permission from the elders, Tumbatu Island offers a rare glimpse into authentic island living, centuries-old traditions, and a proud heritage linked to the earliest Swahili settlements.

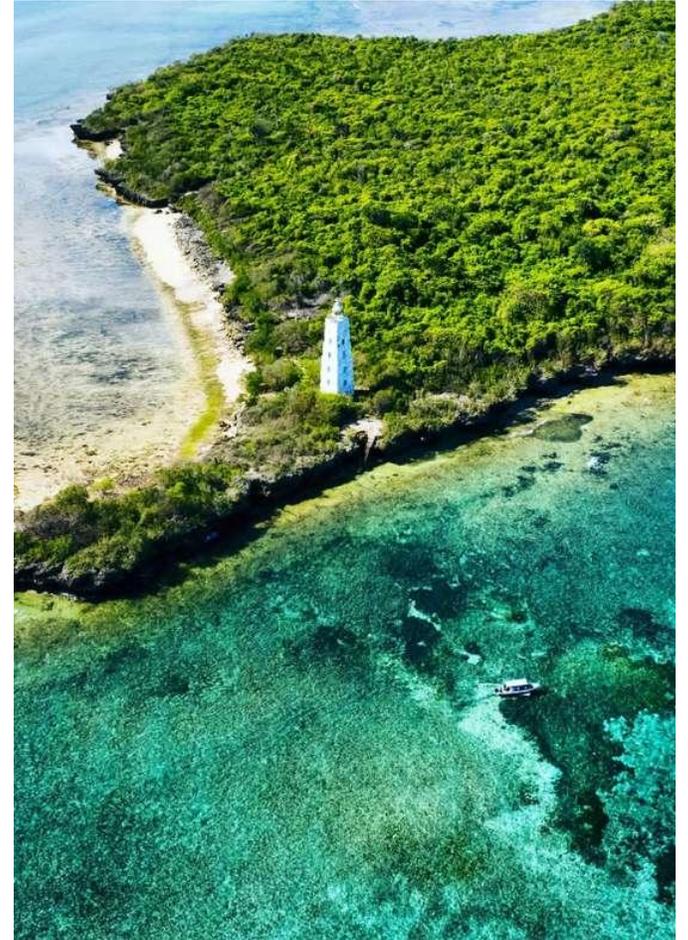

Explore local craftsmanship, ancient Baobab trees, and daily village life, guided by residents who share their stories with warmth and pride.

Includes:

- Guided village and cultural walk
- Visit to fishing areas, school, and historical Baobabs
- Packed picnic lunch and soft drinks
- Local community guide and translator
- Round-trip transfers from Safaya Villas

Good to Know:

- Modest clothing required (shoulders and knees covered)
 - Access involves walking through shallow water
 - Photography allowed only with guide permission
 - Limited facilities available on the island
- Private (530 USD for 2pax)

Stone Town Served @ Night

Location: Stone Town

Duration: Evening (approx. 3–4 hours)

Experience the enchanting side of Stone Town after sunset — where history, culture, and flavor blend into one magical evening.

This guided walking tour takes you through four handpicked venues, each serving a delicious course, offering you a progressive dinner through Zanzibar’s most iconic streets.

As you stroll beneath lantern-lit balconies and the scent of spices fills the air, you’ll experience the true rhythm of Zanzibari nights — from elegant rooftop bars to the famous Forodhani Night Market, where local life comes alive.

Includes:

- Guided evening walking tour through Stone Town
- Four-course dining experience across selected venues
- Local guide and cultural storytelling
- Bottled water and soft drinks
- Round-trip transfers from Safaya Villas

Price:

- Private (380 USD for 2pax)

Village Tour – Kendwa Area

Good to Know:

- Modest dress recommended (shoulders and knees covered)
- Morning or late-afternoon tours preferred for cooler weather
- Photography allowed with permission
- Supports local families and educational initiatives

Location: Kendwa – North Zanzibar

Duration: 2 to 3 hours

Just a few minutes from Safaya Villas, the Kendwa Village Tour offers a beautiful opportunity to experience the true spirit of Zanzibar — away from the beaches and inside the heart of island life.

Walk through narrow sandy paths shaded by coconut palms, and visit the local primary school, where children greet you with bright smiles and laughter. Step into family homes to see traditional ways of cooking, weaving, and daily living. You'll also visit small local workshops, where boat builders, fishermen, and craftspeople still work by hand, preserving techniques passed down through generations.

Along the way, your local guide will share stories about culture, traditions, and the deep sense of community that defines Zanzibar's villages. It's a simple yet touching experience — genuine, human, and unforgettable.

Includes:

- Guided walking tour with local community host
- Visits to school, homes, and small industries
- Bottled water and fruits
- Transfers from Safaya Villas

Price:

- 30 $ \ per person

Seaweed Center Experience

Location: Paje – Southeast Coast of Zanzibar

Duration: Half day (approx. 5–6 hours including transfers)

Where sustainability meets beauty.

The Seaweed Center in Paje — also known as Mwani Zanzibar — is one of the island’s most inspiring community projects, led by local women who transform wild-harvested seaweed into high-quality skincare and wellness products. Your experience begins with a scenic drive across the island to Paje’s serene coast.

Upon arrival, you’ll be greeted with a refreshing seaweed tonic, infused with local fruits, before joining a guided tour of the production studio.

Learn how raw seaweed is dried, processed, and turned into soaps, scrubs, and essential oils — all handmade using sustainable, eco-friendly methods.

For a closer look at nature’s rhythm, you can also visit a nearby seaweed farm, where women harvest the plants by hand along the shore, following centuries-old coastal traditions. It’s a story of empowerment, creativity, and respect for the ocean — a quiet, meaningful glimpse into real island life.

Includes:

- Guided factory and farm visit
- Seaweed tonic tasting
- Bottled water and light refreshments
- Round-trip transfers from Safaya Villas

Good to know:

- Morning departure recommended (best light for photos)
- Eco-friendly sandals or water shoes advised
- Products available for purchase at the center’s boutique
- Visit supports local women’s cooperatives and fair-trade employment

Price:

- Private (350 USD for 2 persons)

Full Day Island Highlights

Three essential journeys — one unforgettable day. This full-day experience captures the heart and history of Zanzibar through its most iconic landmarks: the ancient charm of Stone Town, the historic tranquility of Prison Island, and the aromatic paradise of a traditional Spice Farm.

Location: Stone Town, Prison Island & Spice Farm

Duration: Full day (approx. 8–9 hours including transfers)

Begin your morning in Stone Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site where winding alleys and carved wooden doors tell stories of sultans, traders, and explorers. Visit the old slave market, the Anglican Cathedral, and the Sultan's Palace, as your guide reveals the island's layered past and vibrant present.

Next, embark on a short boat ride across the turquoise channel to Prison Island, home to the century-old giant tortoises and a fascinating colonial history. Stroll along the shore, feed the gentle giants, and take in the panoramic views of Stone Town from the sea.

Finally, head inland to a lush Spice Farm, where you'll walk through groves of cloves, nutmeg, vanilla, and cinnamon. Taste tropical fruits straight from the trees and learn how Zanzibar became known as the Spice Island.

Good to Know:

- Modest clothing required for cultural sites
- Comfortable shoes recommended for walking tours
- Sunscreen and hat advised for the outdoor portions
- Can be customized to include shopping or a sunset return

Price:

- Private (230$ for two persons)

Includes:

- Guided tours of all three locations
- Entrance fees and boat transfers
- Bottled water and light lunch
- Round-trip transportation from Safaya Villas
